

Having Faith

A New York Times Bestselling Author Faith Barry is on the fast track in legal circles. Sawyer Bell is a colleague and a friend of Faith's from way back -- and now they're representing opposing clients in a complicated and messy divorce case. They find the battle irresistible, until one night changes everything -- and they cross the line between friends and lovers. It's an action that leaves Faith facing her single biggest challenge as she finds herself questioning everything she has always wanted ... and, in the process, desiring more.
