

Fair Margaret (H. Rider Haggard Collection)

Dodo Collections brings you another classic from H. Rider Haggard, Fair Margaret. In the turbulent reign of King Henry VII, Peter Brome finds himself with a soldier's blood on his hands. Blood the Spanish ambassadors demand be repaid. Poor and fatherless, Peter delivered the killing blow in self-defense and because of his helpless love for Margaret, dark-eyed daughter of John Castell, the kindly and wealthy merchant who has overseen his upbringing. Now another pursues Fair Margaret the powerful Marquis d'Aguilar of Spain, traveling in England upon a secret mission for the Inquisition. More than love hangs in the balance.

Sir Henry Rider Haggard was an English writer of adventure novels set in exotic locations, predominantly Africa, and the creator of the Lost World literary genre. His stories, situated at the lighter end of the scale of Victorian literature, continue to be popular and influential. He was also involved in agricultural reform and improvement in the British Empire. His breakout novel was King Solomon's Mines (1885), which was to be the first in a series telling of the multitudinous adventures of its protagonist, Allan Quatermain. Haggard was made a Knight Bachelor in 1912 and a Knight Commander of the Order of the British Empire in 1919. He stood unsuccessfully for Parliament as a Conservative candidate for the Eastern division of Norfolk in 1895. The locality of Rider, British Columbia, was named in his memory.
